What's happening in, around the Dallas

TODAY

“Potter's Work,” a pottery show by ceramicist Bill Grosh, will be on display through March 30 in the Blakely Library Foyer of the University of Dallas, in Irving. Viewing hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

The Texas Aquarium Society of Greater Dallas will present its first annual Hobby Exhibition and Competition from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. today through Saturday at Richardson Square Mall, Belt Line at Plano Road. The free show will feature decorated tanks containing variety of works to be judged and displayed to the public. For more information, call 783-0117.

The 49th Annual Meeting of the Texas Society of Radiologic Technologists will take place today through Saturday at the Loew's Anatole Dallas. In conjunction with the meeting, Mayor Robert Polson has named this week Radiologic Technology Week for the city of Dallas.

Richardson Alumnae of Alpha Delta Pi will meet at 7:30 p.m. at 16915 Colegrove. The program will be "What Women Should Know About Wills, Credit, Etc." Membership is open to all alumnae. For more information, call 999-6043 or 245-4008.

Something for Everyone is the theme of the fourth annual Tri Delta Charity Antiques Show, to be presented tomorrow through Sunday in the Grand Ballroom of the Dallas Convention Center. The benefit will include exhibits by dealers from across the nation, a gala preview and private sale, a loan exhibit lecture series and gallery tours.

The show is sponsored by the Dallas and Richardson alumnae chapters of Tri Delta Delta. A lecture on "American Folk Art" will be presented at 11 a.m. Friday, and a symposium on "Collecting Art" will be presented at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Admission to the show is $3 per person, or $5 per family of four. For more information, call 521-8828.

Workshop

"Developing Counselor Skills in Dealing With Loss and Change" will be the theme of a workshop to be presented Thursday in the West Lecture Hall of Brookhaven College. The morning topic will be "Good Grief: Helping Youth Cope With Loss" and the afternoon topic will be "Death: A Personal Experience." Registration will begin at 6:30 p.m. with on-site registration fees being $5 ($3 for members of the North Central Texas Personnel and Guidance Association, which is presenting the workshop).

Sundance Kids

The Sundance Kids Club will hold their first meeting at 7:30 p.m. at Fair Oaks Park. The non-profit organization will discuss plans for future meetings and participate in recreational activities.

Art

The Dallin Independent School District will exhibit the art work of area school children tomorrow through March 30 in Rentner School, Old City Park, 1717 Gane St. at 1-30 and St. Paul. The exhibit, in observance of National Youth Art Month, includes 2 and 3-dimensional art forms in all areas. Old City Park is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. on weekends.

The price of admission is $1 for adults and $0.50 for senior citizens and children.

Puppet Show

"The Princess and the Pea," a puppet show for children, will be presented at 3:30 p.m. at the Martin Luther King, Jr., Library/Learning Center, 2822 Forest Ave.

Film

"Breastfeeding" is a subject of a film to be shown at 8 p.m. at the Family Life Information Centre, 2560 Royal Lane, Suite 112. The film is suitable for all ages as classified by the Dallas Motion Picture Classification Board. Questions will be answered after the film and resource persons from the Center will be present. For further information, call 241-0451.

Sherlock Holmes' mystifying "Silver Blaze Case" will be shown on videotape at 7:30 p.m. at the Nicholson Memorial Library, 625 Austin St. in Garland. For more information about the free presentation, call 494-6911.

"Mahogany," a motion picture starring Diane Ross, will be shown free at 10 a.m. at the Valley View Cinema, as "Valley View Shopping Center's 'Ladies Day at the Movies.'"

Meetings

The North Dallas Woman's Club will meet at 11 a.m. at Brookhaven Country Club. A social hour will precede a program hour featuring Marian Moreau.

Diamond Exhibit

"The Story of Diamonds," a unique and educational diamond exhibit on a year-long tour of 40 major U.S. cities, will be held at the Forum 303 Shopping Mall through Saturday and Monday. The exhibit is open free to the public during regular mall hours, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Story Hour

Story hours conducted in Spanish for grade school children will be held at 4 p.m. each Thursday at the Walnut Creek Branch Library, Jupiter and Walnut in Garland. Films, games, and art of Spanish-speaking countries will be featured, along with stories in Spanish. Knowledge of Spanish is helpful, but not necessary for enjoyment of the programs. Bi-lingual books will be used as well as books written entirely in Spanish. All children are welcome to attend, and no registration is needed.

UPCOMING

Diabetes Class

An afternoon class to assist diabetics with home health care will be offered Friday for six weeks, beginning at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Cliff Manor Apartments, 2423 Fort Worth Ave. The class, "Living with Diabetes," will be taught by a staff including nurse, educator, physiologist, and nutritionist from the Department. There is a small fee for a payable at the door. For further information, call 248-3391.

Club Event

The North Dallas American Business Women's Club will hold a spring Funday at the home of Mrs. T. Green on Saturday at the home of Nancy Mann, Chapter President. The "Magic Touch" meeting will be held noon through ABWA membership is by invitation only. Information business can be obtained from Sandy Denton at 6503.

Seminar

A seminar designed for the public and state-wide job employment will be held March 20, at the Unive Dallas, Floyd and Richardson. The seminar will cover potential employment clients and is free to those in employment. For more information, call 2098.