

tempo

Vol. 4, No. 21

News and Information
University of Dallas

August 24, 1981

NOTES

FR. DAVID BALAS, Graduate Dean, was the recipient of a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. He has just returned from two months in Germany where he spent most of his time at the University of Munster in Westphalia working on the encounter between Platonic tradition and early Christianity especially as reflected in the work of Gregory of Nyssa.

FACULTY DAY is scheduled for Tuesday, August 24. University staff is invited to join with the faculty for their annual luncheon, to be held in the Haggar Center Cafeteria at 12:30 p.m. Also, an invitation is extended to faculty and their spouses for a cocktail party that evening at 7:00 p.m. in the Haggar Center Cafeteria.

BARBRA PEREZ has joined the University Community in Personnel, ext. 5202. Update your Faculty/Staff Directory.

LEGARE VAN NESS, Director of Development, reports that a $250,000 gift has been presented to the University for the Haggerty Science Center.

The dorms open Wednesday, August 25 and the new Freshman will be arriving on campus. The President's Reception will be from 8-10 p.m. on the Mall.

Registration for new students will be held on Thursday and Friday, August 26-27 in Gorman Lecture Center from 1-4 p.m.

ART SHOWS

BERT SCHERBARTH MFA show is being held in the Haggar University Gallery now through September 4th.

CYNTHIA ZEMUS MORRIS continues her MA show in the Art Department through Sept. 5th.

The "University of Dallas National Print Invitational" will be shown at the Waco Art Center through September 27. This project by the University Art Department includes works by well known artist/printmakers from across the nation. Prints by twenty invited artists were selected by a team of graduate students in print-making at the University under the direction of their professor, JUERGEN STRUNCK.

CALENDAR

TEMPO will be a regular on Monday afternoons. Bring you newsworthy items to News and Information, upstairs Haggar. Deadline is Thursday before the publication date.