"Microcomputer Magic" has brought kids and computers to the UD campus for a class sponsored by the Gifted Students Institute. Students in grades 5-8 will study computer programming during the two week institute. UD education professor DR. KATHLEEN MARTIN is co-director of the program.

SCOTT KING, Director of International Student Services, will speak Thursday, July 14, 2-5 p.m. in Lynch Auditorium on the new immigration regulations effective August 1 for international students. The tightening of regulations will affect all university international programs.

Braniff Graduate School Acting Dean DR. MARK JORDAN has moved to Carpenter Administration, #5166. His secretary SUSAN MARTIN, formerly with GSM, can be reached at #5108.

A Media Guide to the Experts is being published by the Communications Department. The booklet will list UD faculty willing to serve as reference sources for the news media and/or available for speaking engagements. If you would like to be included in the publication, contact the department, #5261 or 5262.

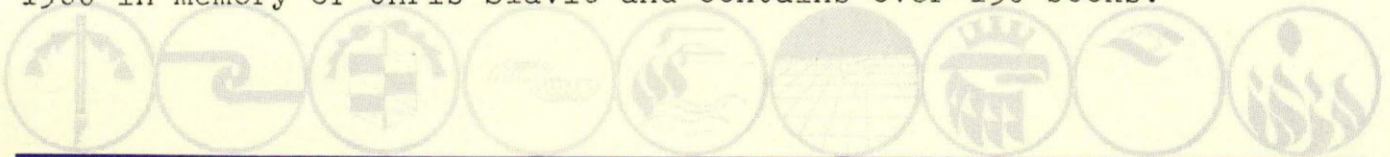

DR. JUNE WELCH's 20-segment TV series "Texas Vignettes" continues on AHE TAGER C-Group Channel, Wednesdays, 8-8:30 p.m. through August 3.

The CAFETERIA is now on the UD telephone system. The new number is 721-5026.

REMINDER: Contact BARBARA PEREZ, Personnel, for information on current job openings.

Associate Professor of English DR. MICHAEL PLATT has been invited to chair a panel at the International Milton Conference in Cambridge, England, August 8-12. In May he lectured on Nietzsche at East Anglia University and delivered two public lectures at the University of Heidelberg where he is studying this year on an Alexander von Humboldt Fellowship.

SARAH MERDIAN, a graduate of UD, has made a generous contribution to the Chris Slavic Children's Book Collection located in the Department of Education Library. The collection was established by UD students in 1980 in memory of Chris Slavic and contains over 150 books.

Welcome to JOLYNNE JENSEN who joined the Development Office July 6 as Assistant Director of Development, a new university position. JoLynne was assistant director of development for the Shakespeare Festival of Dallas prior to coming to UD. JoLynne will research prospects and work with the UD annual fund. She has a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Wayne State University in Detroit and attended law school there. She has been a resident of the Dallas area for two years.

Welcome to ROBERTA ALLAN and SUE SPURGEON, GSM faculty secretaries and to SUE SMITH, administrative assistant to the biology/chemistry department. Welcome also to SHERRY WILLIAMSON, library acquisitions assistant, and to CAROL SMALL, library cataloguing assistant.

TEMPO is published bi-weekly on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. If you have any items to be included, please send a note to UD COMMUNICATIONS or call #5261 before noon on the Friday preceding publication date.
