

March 11, 1985
Vol. 8, No. 5

Madelyn P. Jennings will lecture on "Managing in a Media Company" on March 19 at 5:30 p.m. in Lynch Auditorium. Jennings is senior vice president of personnel and administration at Gannett Company Inc. The lecture is part of the GSM spring Management Lecture Series. A reception will precede the lecture at 4:30 p.m. in Haggar University Center, upstairs.

University Women will host a brown bag lunch on March 13 from noon to 1 p.m. in Haggar University Center, upstairs. Arrangements for a babysitter can be made by calling #5204.

Sigma Iota Epsilon is sponsoring a one-day seminar on "Personal Wealth" on March 23. James Westbrook, vice president of Baldwin Financial Group, and Mark D. Head, financial planner, will discuss financial planning, tax shelters, real estate and other issues. The seminar will be 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Haggar University Center, upstairs. It is open to SIE members, GSM alumni and GSM faculty. The fee is $20. Spouses and escorts are welcome to attend at no additional charge. Lunch will be provided. For more information or to register, please contact SIE President Larry Miller at 986-8326 or 556-1155.

Four new films by Dr. SAUL W. GELLERMAN, GSM dean, will premiere March 20 at the Wyndham Hotel in Dallas. The managerial training films are entitled "Effective Leadership", "Managing Employee Morale", "Behavior Modelling" and "Motivation: Myths and Realities."

"People, Places, Panoramas," an exhibit by photographers Ken Graves, Marc Hessell and Gerald Lang, will be shown March 8 through April 5 in Haggar University Center Gallery. The gallery is open weekdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A student photography exhibit will be on display through March 14 in the Haggerty Art Center Gallery. The gallery is open weekdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. UD students exhibiting work are Brooke Batson, James Behan, Margaret Binder, JoAnn Cockmon, Christina Davis, Timothy Duyka, Shellie Goad, Patricia Kennedy and Christopher Swan.

The UD chapter of the Society of Physics Students recently received the 1985 Marsh W. White Award of $135 from the Sigma Pi Sigma, the Society of Physics Students in New York. The award was for the chapter's proposal "A Random Walk," a project to popularize physics with the general public. UD was one of seven chapters selected to receive the award from some 518 chapters in the United States and Canada.

The UD Development staff attended the 1985 International Conference of National Society of Fund Raising Executives in Houston on March 3-6. A. LEGARE VAN NESS, director of development, served as a mini-chat facilitator for a presentation on "Capital Campaigns." JOLYNNE JENSEN, assistant director of development, and JOHN A. DAVIS, associate director of development, served as mentors to scholarship recipients who were attending the conference for the first time and who are relatively new to the field of fund raising. Davis also presided over a Chapter Leadership Seminar for chapter treasurers as part of the ongoing continuing education program for NSFRE members.

Sculpture Textile Compositions by HERI BERT BARTSCHT and WALTRAUD BARTSCHT are on exhibit at the Goodrich Gallery through Easter. The gallery is in the First United Methodist Church of Dallas on Harwood at Ross Avenue.

KATIE CARROLL, administrative assistant in Student Life, is a grandmother again. Her oldest daughter, Mary, gave birth to Joseph John in Naperville, Ill. on Feb. 24.

Spring break for students and faculty will be March 16-24. The Rathskeller will be open during that time, but the cafeteria will be closed.

*****

TEMPO is published on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. If you have an item to submit, please send a typed note to UD Communications or call #5261 before the Friday preceding the publication date.